

ROOSEVELT IS AT ROCKFORD

Chief Executive Spoke at the Illinois City This Morning—Large Crowd Present.

DEDICATES A HALL

Was in Freeport Earlier in the Day—Makes a Most Masterful Speech.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Rockford, Ill., June 3.—President Roosevelt arrived here from Freeport this morning. He was met at the depot by a large and enthusiastic crowd and was escorted to Memorial Building by several posts of G.A.R. veterans, bands, soldiers and police.

Spoke at Freeport.
The president arrived at Freeport early this morning and made a most excellent speech from the court house steps. He visited the spot where Lincoln and Douglas had their famous debate, and remained some time.

Paid Tribute.
In his speech he paid a glowing tribute to Abraham Lincoln and said that no orator could be found whose speeches would endure as some of his. He also complimented the men who supported him through his struggle.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE
NOW PLANNED

Argentina, Chilean and Brazil Talk of an Alliance for Protection.

Buenos Ayres, Argentina, June 3.—El Nacional, a newspaper which has special facilities for learning news concerning diplomatic affairs, publishes an article stating that it is said in high diplomatic circles that the Argentina, Chilean and Brazilian foreign offices are negotiating an alliance to combat European intervention.

According to El Nacional's informant, the proposed alliance includes: First, an obligation signed by the three nations to help each other in case any European power should threaten either republic's sovereignty; second to advance diplomatic intervention in case of conflicts between European nations and any South American republics not included in the alliance; and, third, to observe with other South American republics what European diplomacy calls an international policy, preventing conflicts.

The Argentina government is carefully guarding the secret of the negotiations and refuses to make a statement confirming or denying the reports. It is fully agreed, however, among those in high authority that the three foreign offices are engaged in some action relative to international relations. A high official said: "There is no alliance in form as pointed out by El Nacional, but there is a tacit agreement between Chile, Brazil, Uruguay and Argentina."

JANESVILLE MAN
IN KANSAS CITY

The Janesville Machine Company Has an Agent in the Flooded District.

Probably the only Janesville firm that is directly affected by the Kansas City flood is the Janesville Machine company. They have a large stock of farm implements stored in a big warehouse there and they constantly keep a representative in the city to look after their interests. Word received from him yesterday stated that his office floor was only six feet under water but that the river was going down.

Awful Devastation.
It speaking of the situation there Mr. Craig said this morning: "Mr. W. H. Emmet is our agent there. He wires me that the office floor is six feet under water. As I remember it the office floor is about four feet above the sidewalk and this would make it about ten feet of water on the sidewalk. I do not think we shall lose much by this flood as all our stock was in the fourth story of the building which I think is located twelve blocks from the river banks.

Lowlands.
"The city of Kansas City is very peculiar. All the railroads, all the warehouses and wholesale stores are located on the bottom land which lies along the river at the entrance of the Kaw and the Missouri. This is all under water. The retail stores and the offices and homes are on the bluffs and have not been touched.

Funny Papers.
"Evidently they are having a hard time down there for we have two papers today from there that are mere skeletons of the usual size—one paper and what I should judge all hand-set matter. They place the loss of homes at fifteen thousand. I do not believe that any one really realizes just what the condition down there is."

Mrs. Geo. G. Paris and her mother, Mrs. McFarlane, are visiting friends in Rockford for a few days.

HEAT PROSTRATES
POPE LEO XIII.

All His Audiences, Not Strictly Necessary, Are Suspended for the Time.

Rome, June 3.—The pope is fatigued on account of the heat. Though he is not ill his doctor has suspended all not strictly necessary audiences. The probable postponement of the consistory for a few days is not connected with the pope's health, but is due to the situation in France.

The secret consistory has been postponed until June 22. The public consistory will take place June 25. At the latter Cardinal Satolli will be appointed Bishop of Frascati.

DATE FOR CONSISTORY FIXED

Will be Held June 22, When Satolli Will be Made Cardinal Bishop.

Rome, June 3.—The next consistory has been definitely fixed to be held on June 22, when Francesco Satolli, who is now cardinal priest, will be promoted to the order of cardinal bishops and will have a suburban see. Mgr. Lorenzelli, the papal nuncio at Paris, has confidently informed President Loubet that it will be impossible for the pope to receive him if he visits Rome as a guest of the king of Italy.

LILIAN BLAUVELT
APPEARS IN FAUST

Singer Receives Generous Applause at Her Initial Appearance in Covent Garden.

London, June 3.—Mme. Lilian Blauvelt made her debut at Covent Garden Tuesday as Marguerite in Gounod's "Faust." She met with an excellent reception from a critical audience, which included a number of well known musicians. Though not among the finest American singers heard at Covent Garden, Mme. Blauvelt proved a charming exponent of the part. She was rather nervous in the opening acts, and made her finest effect in the prison scene. She was well supported by M. Sallancas as Faust and M. Plancon as Mephistopheles.

DEATH RESULTED FROM ACCIDENT

Gus Gustafson Dies from Injuries Received a Week Ago

Gus Gustafson, the young man who was fatally injured by an interurban car at Ho-No-Ne-Gah Park, near Rockton, Ill., was buried at Beloit yesterday afternoon. It was a week ago last Sunday that the accident occurred and at first it appeared probable that he would rally, but at the last of the week he failed rapidly and died. The funeral was attended by many of the employees of the Foster Shoe Co., where he worked, and by members of the Odd Fellows order.

OUTLOOK IS HOPEFUL; WATER FALLS IN RIVER

Kansas City, Mo., Reports That Better Conditions Prevail—Relief for Slater Town.

Kansas City, June 3.—Better conditions prevail here, and the outlook is hopeful. The water in the Kansas river, locally called the Kaw, fell eight inches, and the Missouri remains stationary. The local weather official declared that he saw nothing in meteorological signs promising a recurrence of trouble. While provisions are scarce, the situation is not alarming. Kansas City, Kan., is being relieved as fast as possible via Leavenworth. Food, medicines, blankets and provisions are being rushed there by electric trains from Leavenworth. No one has yet been to Armourdale, where 400 to 1,000 are thought to have been marooned, mostly on frail buildings, and through which a terrific current has been sweeping since. Outside of these, there are probably forty dead, but not a body has actually been recovered.

WOULD POISON
QUEEN DRAGA

Repeated Attempts Have Been Made to End Life of the Serbian Queen.

WARNED IN TIME

Royal Cook Then Kills Himself Because of the Failure of His Plans.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Vienna, June 3.—Persistent rumors are current that several attempts have been made to poison Queen Draga of Serbia within the past week, but they have all been futile owing to the fact she was warned in time to escape.

Poisoned Food.
On one occasion her food had been poisoned and she was about to eat when warned in time to save her. The next day the king's chief committed suicide and it is thought he was responsible for the attempts.

Accepts Divorce.
Some days ago it was announced that Draga would allow herself to be divorced, and would enter a convent. She was a poor girl when she married the king and is much older than he is. She is very unpopular with the Servians.

GERMAN TARIFF
ACT DEFENDED

Semi-Official Statement Shows That Duties Merely Follow Old Law.

Berlin, June 2.—A semi-official statement was published this afternoon of the history of the tariff relations between Germany, Great Britain and Canada. The object of the publication evidently is to show that Germany has not imposed any special punitive duties on Canadian imports and has simply acted in accordance with the provisions of the autonomous tariff law of 1879.

ZIMMERMAN IS NEAR THE END

Man Who Was Injured in Court House Park in Convulsions This Morning.

It is a matter of wonder to those who have been most closely watching the condition of Henry Zimmerman, the teamster who was assaulted in the courthouse park a week ago last Saturday, that he has not succumbed to his wounds previous to this time. The end is expected momentarily. This morning he was in convulsions and was not expected to live more than a few hours at the outside. He has not regained consciousness so as to make any statement regarding his assailants.

A thorough investigation as to conditions in and about Topeka and in the water-covered portion of Kansas was instituted. Much information was collected—enough to prove the general situation is little less than appalling. The gist of the information thus gained follows:

Number homeless, 10,000.
Flooded district uninhabitable for at least three months.
Known dead, forty-eight.
Sanitary conditions due to decaying carcasses and human bodies promises to be frightful.

Finally all the troops in the city were ordered to take part in quelling the disturbance.

BLACK CREEK MINERS RETURN

Committee Decides Against Man Who Mistreated a Mule.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 3.—The joint committee of miners and operators appointed by the respective state organizations, after three weeks' futile efforts to settle the strike of 600 men at Black Creek, ordered because an operator discharged a mule driver for cruelty to the animal, has investigated the case and decided in favor of the operator and mule. The mule is crippled for life, and while the committee found that it had been injured before the driver beat it, yet the use of a four-foot club while the mule was tied fore and aft was cruel. The discharge of the man was approved and the 600 men returned to work.

ENGLISH DISLIKE
TARIFF PLAN

Co-Operative Societies of Great Britain Object to the Changes.

London, June 3.—Fifteen hundred delegates of the co-operative societies of the United Kingdom, at their annual meeting at Doncaster today, adopted a resolution emphatically protesting against "any tampering with the free trade policy of this country by preferential tariffs." There were only three dissentients. The speakers vigorously condemned Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's preferential tariff proposal.

Berlin June 3.—The semi-official Nord Deutsche Zeitung publishes an exhaustive article on the history of German-Canadian trade relations. It declares that Germany never has had any idea of interfering with the internal relations of Great Britain and Canada, but since Great Britain has repeatedly laid stress on the fact that the self-governing colonies are independent in the matter of commercial treaties, Germany has a perfect right to treat Canada as a separate country. The National Zeitung approves of Germany not adopting retaliatory measures against Canada. Germany, it says, must avoid providing wind to inflate Mr. Chamberlain's sails, as no advantage can accrue to Germany from strengthening the British colonial secretary's position.

Its invitation to the Janesville club includes not only the team but members and ladies.

ILLINOIS' ONLY BATTLEFIELD

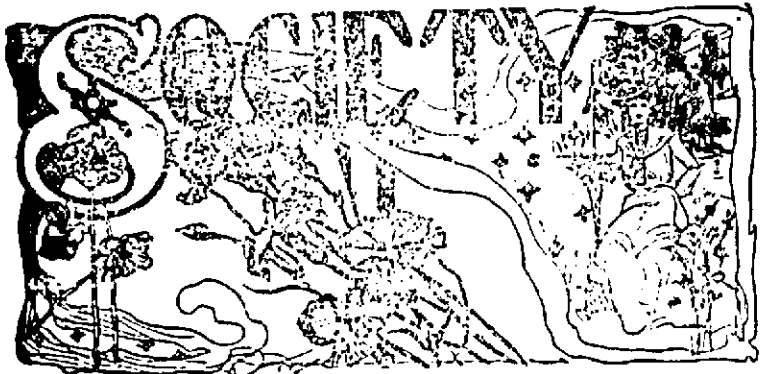

Spot Where the Heroes of the Black Hawk War Fell Perpetuated by G. A. R. Post of Stillman Run.

Sterling, Ill., June 2.—The memory of the heroes who lie sleeping on the battlefield of Stillman valley, the only battlefield in the state of Illinois, is kept green by the flying of the American flag the entire year. Whenever the flags become faded or frayed or pole broken a new flag is substituted. So far as known this is the only place known where the flag is kept floating over the headstones of the soldier dead in the United States.

Sixty-five years ago the early pioneers met Black Hawk and his warriors at Stillman Run, and nine fell on the field, where their bodies were consigned. The little G. A. R. post of Stillman Run, consisting of fifteen members, perpetuate the memory of their dead comrades in the civil, Mexican, and early Indian wars by the use of the American flag.

The little post has also secured a monument, through an appropriation from the general assembly, which now marks the place of their soldier dead. This little but gallant post had purchased the plot of land, fixed up the graves, and made a handsome cemetery ground of the old battlefield in the state long before the money for the monument was appropriated.

HONOR PAID DAVID TENNENT

Janesville Boy Who Has Won a Place in the Scientific World.

David Hilt Tennent, a former Janesville boy, has received a fellowship in zoology in John Hopkins university where he has been studying for the past three days. Mr. Tennent is the son of Mrs. Mary Tennent, 57 Holmes street, an old resident of Janesville. Mr. Tennent graduated from the Janesville high school with the class of 1892 and soon after entered the employ of W. T. Sherer, the well known druggist, intending to take up pharmacy as a profession. He stayed with Mr. Sherer for five years and at the end of that time he had graduated as a pharmacist under the State Board of Pharmacy, having taken two examinations and received his first and second papers. Mr. Sherer speaks very highly of him. He then left Janesville and entered Olivet college, Olivet, Michigan, where he graduated from the regular four years' science course. From Olivet college Mr. Tennent went to Philadelphia university, Philadelphia, Pa. He has been there three years and next summer will receive the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. Last summer he filled a professorship in an Ashland, Virginia college, teaching biology. Later he was at Beaumont, N. C., where are situated the United States fish hatcheries; here Mr. Tennent has been gathering material for this year's work. This summer a position has been offered him as lecturer at a summer school at Woods Hole, Mass.

This is the second scholarship Mr. Tennent has received from the university. Mr. Tennent has an enviable record as he has worked his way through college leaving Janesville with practically nothing to start on. His record shows what a young man who is ambitious to succeed can accomplish entirely by his own efforts. Mr. Tennent visited his mother last summer and his many friends were glad to welcome him home.

Accident on Interurban: On the Interurban road Monday night one of the poles near the Gower farm burned off at the top in such a way as to make it necessary to close down the sub-station and run the cars entirely by the power from Beloit which necessitated greatly reducing the speed.

Licensed to Marry: A marriage license was issued yesterday to Jens Nelson and Anna Moe, both of Evansville.

MEAT VALUES GO UP IN CHICAGO

Western Floods Cause the Price To Be Advanced on Dressed Product.

Meat prices began to advance yesterday in the Chicago market as the result of the western flood. Prices paid for cattle, sheep, and hogs on the hoof, were from 5 to 25 cents higher and retail men were informed that they would have to pay from 1 1/2 to 1 cent per pound more for dressed meats.

The advance in the dressed products is said to be only a forerunner of what the future will contain. Inability on the part of the railroads to move stock and supply the market, the cutting out of the Kansas City houses for the time and the threatened destruction of many head of stock and fields of corn is declared to be the cause for the advance. Fear on the part of users of stock, that their supply will be reduced at a time when there is the greatest demand for it is expected to increase the demand just as it forced the prices up in the Chicago yards yesterday when the sales began.

"Prices have been already advanced from 1/2 to 1 cent per pound on dressed products," said M. J. Sulzberger of Swartzchild & Sulzberger, in a Chicago paper. "This advance is naturally due to the threatened shortage which must follow in the market as a result of shutting off the supply, through lack of transportation facilities on the railroads. The supply was much lighter today than was expected, and it will continue to grow less day by day until the roads have been repaired and the movements of shipments is resumed. It is impossible to say how much the prices will go up or how long the high prices will prevail, because none of the railroads is able to say when traffic will be resumed and the market supplied with its customary amount of stock."

Fainted in Flushed Ditch: A lady who was crossing the street at the corner of Franklin and Pleasant streets Monday stepped into a ditch which had just been flushed with water and rolled according to the new city ordinance and became so deeply sunk in the mire that she fell and fainted. She was extricated with difficulty by passers by. Her dress was ruined by the sticky yellow clay.

RAILROAD NEWS OF INTEREST

Items Concerning the Local Yards, and Notes Picked Up Along the Main Line.

E. L. Somers has broken the record for big jumps in railway employment. Announcement has been made that he has been appointed freight traffic manager of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford road, to succeed J. Williams. Mr. Somers' position when he received the appointment was general agent of the West Shore road at Chicago. Although the position was an important one to the West Shore, it was not one in which Mr. Somers was brought in contact with the higher traffic officials.

FORTY-FOURTH ANNUAL SESSION

Stockholders of the Northwestern Road Are in Session in Chicago.

Considerable speculation is being indulged in regarding the forty-fourth annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the North-Western road, which will be held in Chicago today. Last year interest was intense because of the attempt which the Moores and W. H. Leeds made to secure a representation on the board. It is not likely that there will be a repetition of that fight for it is said the Rock Island interests in North-Western have been parted with. Six directors whose terms expire this year will probably be re-elected. They are Albert Keep, formerly chairman of the board; Chauncey M. Depue, Samuel F. Barger, James C. Fargo, M. L. Stiles of New York and David Kimball of Boston. Some time ago Mr. Keep resigned as chairman of the board, and it is said that the position will not be filled. After the annual meeting the officers of the road and members of the Omaha board will leave Chicago on a special train for the purpose of inspecting the system as far as Ashland and Omaha. While away the annual meeting of the Omaha board will be held.

LIBRARY SCHOOL IS IN SESSION

The Ninth Summer Term in Library Instruction at Madison.

The ninth annual session of the summer school for library training, which is held under the auspices of the Wisconsin free library commission, opened in the capitol building at Madison Monday morning with an attendance of thirty students. The session will continue eight weeks, and the course of study will be of an elementary character. Only students who have a high school education and who have had six months' experience in library work are admitted.

Owing to the limited quarters the attendance was limited to thirty, though there was a much larger number of applications for admission. Preference was given to Wisconsin applicants. The school is under the direction of Miss Cornelia Marvin, library instructor of the commission. It is the purpose of the school to raise the standard of library service in Wisconsin by giving librarians an opportunity to study methods adapted to small libraries and to come in touch with the best and most modern things in the library movement. The course of study is planned to take eight hours a day for five days a week.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ELECT OFFICERS

Meeting Held Last Week in Footville Was Most Excellent in Its Results.

The county Sunday school convention held meetings for three days last week at Footville. The enthusiasm was not dampened by the wet weather and there was a large representation from all parts of the county. No one attended the meetings without deriving much benefit from them and the gathering was one of great helpfulness to all who took part. The following is the list of officers elected for the ensuing year: W. T. Dobson, Beloit, president; Mrs. Winch, Milton Junction, vice president; Miss Cora Ross, Beloit, secretary; W. W. Gilles, Evansville, treasurer; J. T. Wright, Janesville, missionary superintendent. Lima was selected for the next annual meeting place.

LARGEST MAP OF UNITED STATES

IS BEING BUILT AT ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

IT IS TO COVER MANY ACRES

Will Be Most Complete in All Its Minor Details and Arrangements.

Growing on six acres of an gentle Southern slope, of Tesson hill at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, is the largest geographically correct map ever constructed.

This map is 450 feet long from east to west and extends from north to south 240 feet. The map is the main feature of a large open air exhibit by the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Department of Agriculture and is personally superintended by D. A. Brodie, late superintendent of the Western Washington Experiment Station, under the direction of Prof. W. J. Spillman, agronomist of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The Bureau of Plant Industry is made up of eight offices comprising vegetable physiology and pathology; floor plant investigation, poisonous and medical plants investigation, and every phase of plant life. Each of the eight offices is presided over by a chief, and by vote of the combined offices W. J. Spillman, professor of agronomy, was elected to have complete control of this exhibit authorized by an act of Congress. Mr. Brodie was selected to have the supervision of the planting and the cultivation.

Began Preparations

The several acres were fenced off early in April, and the entire tract was richly fertilized. The ground was plowed and harrowed, the soil pulverized, and the entire tract sowed to cow peas. This crop not only enriches the soil, but prevents the growth of weeds and will render subsequent plowing unnecessary. As the crops to be grown will be required to be planted at intervals up to the short time before the opening of the Exposition, further plowing would prove impractical. When an exhibit is ready to be installed the gardeners simply pull up the cow peas covering the space required. The ground is found to be in a receptive condition, and requires but little work upon it.

Monster Map

The monster map, is of course, the main feature of this comprehensive exhibit, and the crop grown on this small farm will cost the government considerably more than $1,000 an acre.

A belt of blue grass lawn, 20 feet wide establishing the boundary and coast lines of this gigantic map. The boundary lines between the states are marked by slender paths, three feet wide. The territory comprising the fourteen states and territories of the Louisiana Purchase is marked by a white gravel walk. The states themselves are to be planted in growing crops of the principal agricultural products of the state. The slender and gravel walks serve as promenades, and are of sufficient width to permit the free passage of visitors. Thus, a labyrinth of passageways is created and the visitor may wind his way through the maze and see by actual demonstration, just what crops are grown in every part of the United States, and how they are raised. The cereals will be the features of the great northwest, while down in Florida will be seen growing the pineapple, and orange, and other semi-tropical fruits and crops. Tobacco will be a prominent feature of Kentucky's allotment, while sugar cane and cotton will be found growing in the plots of ground representing the southern states.

Other Features

Not only will the products of each state on which each commodity is growing crops, but the section of the state on which each commodity is most grown will be shown. In the great northwestern state of Washington, the map of St. Louis shows that wheat, corn, potatoes, hay and wild grasses that thrive in the semi-arid districts are more largely grown in the eastern portion, while in the west, hay, clover, vetches, timothy, orchard hay and grasses, hops, strawberries, raspberries and blackberries are more grown. Thus, on a small plot of ground that represents one great state will be found a score of different crops growing. There will be no actual dividing line between the growing crops though in some cases of the various grasses wheat barley and buckwheat the line is as distinctively drawn by a wave of color as is the line that divides the muddy waters of the Mississippi from those of the comparatively clear Ohio at the junction of the two rivers at Cairo Illinois.

Fix the Eye

While the arrangements of the exhibit in the form of the monster map will fasten the eye more quickly and will challenge the admiration of every visitor to the fair the agricultural and horticulturalists will find in the exhibits surrounding the map other exhibits of equal interest and importance.

A unique feature of the governor's open-air exhibit is the school garden that occupies a large section extending (on the garden map) over the Dominion of Canada from Maine to Minnesota. This exhibit is under the personal direction of Professor Wheeler of Michigan of the U. S. Department of agriculture. The liberal space allotted to this exhibit has been cut into numerous sub-divisions and each of these sub-divisions in turn is turned over to the various St. Louis schools. A class of pupils is selected by the principal of the school so honored and the actual work of planting and cultivating the garden is left to the pupils under, of course, the general direction of Prof. Wheeler. Liberal prizes are offered for the best cultivated garden and for the best results. The sight of the little tots in their knickerbockers and gingham dresses, their sailor hats and sunbonnets, equipped with hoe and rake, is a sight too seldom seen.

Many Features

There are dozens of other features surrounding the map that will reveal themselves to the visitor and will prove interesting and instructive.

An Animal Story For Little Folks The Disappointed Dog

A dog saw a rabbit sitting in the middle of a field munching away upon a carrot top.

"I'll just catch that rabbit!" said the dog, and away he went after it at full speed.

But he was not quick enough, for Mr. Rabbit saw him, dropped his carrot top and scampered. Oh, it was a

"I WANT THIS RABBIT FOR MY DINNER, great race! The dog went so fast that he gradually gained on the fleeing hare.

"I'll have you in a minute," said the dog.

"No, you won't," answered the rabbit.

"Why?" called the dog.

"Because there is another somebody that wants me more than you do," answered the rabbit.

And, sure enough, at that very moment a great big hawk swooped down from the skies and dug his talons into the back of the rabbit. Then the hawk spread his wings again and mounted to the skies.

"I want this rabbit for my dinner," said the hawk as he whirled at the dog.

And the dog felt just about as cheap as anybody ever did to see his prey get away from him in that way.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

READ OUR WANTS

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette Wednesday, June 3, 1863.—A letter from the Battery, written by Henry Wingate dated May 23rd, has been received by his friends in this city, which states that up to that time all were well and safe in the battery.

It is stated that there was a cessation of hostilities at Vicksburg on the 25th, for the purpose of allowing the women and children to leave the city.

The seven self guns which the rebels left at Haines Bluff on the 10th, when Sherman marched in between that height and the city, are probably by this time turned against the rebel works.

General Rosecrans has issued a general order placing rebel officers now in his possession, and hereafter captured in close confinement, and forbidding the parole and exchange of any.

Provost Marshalls to be Uniformed.—An order from the provost marshal general requires that all provost marshalls to wear the uniform as prescribed in the army regulations, of a captain of the general staff.

The Iron Brigade on Another Expedition.—A dispatch from the army of the Potomac dated May 28th, says that an expedition under Col. Morrow, consisting of the 2nd and 6th Wisconsin, 19th Indiana and 24th Michigan, had just returned from Northern Neck. They had left camp on the 21st, to relieve the federal cavalry cut off on the neck by the destruction of a bridge; marched 130 miles in five days, relieved the cavalry, captured a number of prisoners, including Col. Critcher of the 15th Virginia cavalry; gathered nearly one thousand contrabands; brought off from 50 to 75 wagons, together with 500 horses and mules and a quantity of forage, supplies, &c. The expedition reflects great credit on those in command.

Tney Dress Five Times a Day.

Officers of the army on duty in the war department wear uniforms the same as if they were on duty at military posts. Occasionally an officer is found who does not appear in uniform, but it is only for a day or two at most. The practice has resulted in making nearly every room occupied by officers, a dressing room, where wardrobes are kept, says the Post. Most officers dislike to appear on the street in uniform; it makes them too conspicuous. Uniforms for use in the department are kept in a wardrobe, and the officers put them on when they arrive in the morning, take them off and don civilian dress when they go to luncheon and upon their return in the afternoon and departure for home later they go through the same process. They don't like it, but it is an order. For people doing business at the department

It is much better, for a stranger knows whether he is talking with an officer or a clerk, and if familiar with the emblems can tell the rank of the officer.

Several attempts have been made to have an order issued in the navy department which would direct officers on duty there to wear their uniforms but the officers have always made it plain that such an order would not be best.

"It is all very well," said an officer of the army "so far as the discipline is concerned, but uniforms are not needed in the department or about headquarters in a city. In garrisons where the uniform is worn all the time and where all men are soldiers it is of course, a good practice and essential, but it is a great annoyance in other places, where only a few men are in uniform out of several hundred thousand."

Wonder of the Nineteenth Century. Endorsed by all the Leading Tailors and Modistes Wherever Introduced.

A great many wonder why the teachers and scholars of the Standard Garment Cutting Schools are so successful in getting a perfect fit on every form without changing a line. This can be easily accounted for as the "Standard" is the only system in the world that is allowed to use the "Victor" measure. This little invention in itself is a perfect wonder, and every tailor and dressmaker who has seen it used declares it to be the only true mode of getting correct measures. It is entirely different from all of the old style measurements. With it you can detect in a moment where there are any changes to be made as it brings out every outline of the human form, and therefore you can cut a garment to fit a deformed person just as easily as for the most perfect form.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Thursday.

THE REPUBLICAN KEYNOTE

The republican state convention of Pennsylvania recently endorsed President Roosevelt. The action was commendable, but another resolution followed which is of greater importance, because it is a declaration of principles, and sounds the keynote of the campaign. It has to do with the tariff and reads as follows:

"We affirm our unwavering loyalty to the republican principle of a protective tariff and appreciate any suggestion of a general revision at the present time of the tariff law enacted in 1897. We believe it to be the course of wisdom to let well enough alone and not to imperil business interests by any suggestions of present interference with revenue legislation. Permanence and stability of tariff rates are essential to the continued business prosperity." This expression is short enough to be memorized easily. It is something that all republicans should read and heed.

This resolution voices republican sentiment and coming from a state that rolls up majorities of a quarter million in presidential campaigns it ought to have an influence in Iowa and a few other states that are struggling with ideas.

Pennsylvania republicanism has no new theories to advance. The state is a great manufacturing center, and it has tested the protective tariff so thoroughly that it is satisfied to let well enough alone.

It is possible for a nation to reach conditions so far as prosperity is concerned, that are difficult to improve. The United States is now enjoying such conditions, and it is difficult to imagine how they could be improved.

Capital is occupied and labor finds steady employment at good wages. The opportunities for success in every calling were never so abundant as today, and yet there are some men who are dissatisfied, and strange as it may appear, some of these men are found within the ranks of the republican party.

There is a certain class of people in the world who are never satisfied. The weather is either too hot or too cold, too wet or too dry, and they seem possessed of the notion that they could manage the universe better than it is being managed.

When affairs of the government command attention, this same class of people join the roll of knockers, and they never hesitate to offer advice, or advance reform theories. There may be nothing to reform, but that makes no difference. If the country is prosperous, they see danger in prosperity. When the nation is using 95 per cent of all its products, they are not satisfied because it does not supply the markets of the world.

It is gratifying to know that these people are largely in the minority and that the policy of the republican party will not be influenced by them. Protective tariff means protection to American labor and this fact American labor thoroughly understands.

The four years of free trade heresy under Cleveland, has not been forgotten. Pennsylvania sounds the keynote and other states will not be slow to fall in line. The Iowa idea will be lost in the shuffle, and the country will continue to enjoy prosperity under the management of the republican party.

GOVERNOR LA FOLLETTE'S CHANCE

Gov. La Follette is the possessor of even one half the amount of patriotism with which he is credited by his friends he can prove it by disavowing the effort of being made for him, and probably with his tacit approval, to secure re-nomination for a third term as governor of the state of Wisconsin.

It has never been denied that the governor is a close observer of the trend of affairs. Even since his advent into the political arena, he has been one of the most assiduous of those who "pluck the grass, to know where sits the winds," and he is as well informed concerning the political situation as any other man within the state. This being the case, he must know that this effort to foist him upon the people for yet another term will meet with opposition from members of his own party which it will be difficult if not impossible for him to placate. He is too well advised not to be aware of the fact that his nomination might involve the party in a defeat which would mean his disappearance from public life, and would relegate him to the oblivion of his law office. And if, in the face of these facts, he still insists in pursuing his candidacy there will be those who will not hesitate to affirm that the difference between him and William Jennings Bryan, so far as a rule or ruin policy is concerned, is not palpable enough to be made the subject of any extended controversy. The Republican and Leader is not disposed to believe that Governor La Follette is seeking the destruction of the party which has twice honored him by calling him to the highest office which it is in its power to bestow. It still believes that he will announce his determination to step aside and make way for someone who will be acceptable to all republicans of the state and who will be able to marshal the warring factions under a common banner and lead them to victory against a common enemy. The contest next year will not be between Stalwart and Half-breed but between republicanism and democracy together with all that both terms imply.—La Crosse Republican and Leader.

THE HEARST LEAGUE

There has recently been organized in New York City what is known as "The William Randolph Hearst League" which is launched with the following declaration of principles.

"Believing in the principles of government expressed by Thomas Jefferson, applied with matchless courage by Andrew Jackson and nobly supported by Abraham Lincoln, believing that the encroachment of predatory wealth has become a serious menace to those principles, and that the time has once more come when the people must rise and throw off the yoke placed upon us by the advocates of those monarchial principles which Thomas Jefferson opposed, choose a man of the people to sit at the head of the government, in the name of the people; we believe that the most available man in America today, who possesses the combined qualities of a great commoner, and an ideal candidate, is William Randolph Hearst, of New York, and we believe that the interests of the people will be best conserved by his selection of President of the United States; and we propose to promote by every possible legitimate means the nomination and selection of William Randolph Hearst, to said office."

Mr. Hearst has a string of newspapers known as yellow journals. He also possesses inherited millions, and his appearance on the political horizon partakes of the sensational. That he will ever be president of the United States is not a debatable question.

He caters to the same constituency as did William Jennings Bryan, but he lacks the magnetism and personal popularity of that enthusiastic leader, and he has nothing to offer as a campaign issue.

The yellow journal may be popular, but it is not a vote maker, and if Mr. Hearst is depending upon his papers to help him out he will be disappointed.

Mr. Cleveland appeals to conservative democracy, and Mr. Bryan to the radical element of his party. Mr. Hearst may amuse both by his antics, but a clown is never more than a clown.

The Hearst League is leading a forlorn hope. President Roosevelt will succeed himself in spite of any opposition that a demoralized democracy may present.

Mr. Pope, the bicycle manufacturer is attempting to revive the wheel industry. He claims that the business was ruined by neglect, and that liberal advertising will restore it. Mr. Pope knows something about the value of printer's ink, but with all his enthusiasm, it is doubtful if he is able to create another fad demand for wheels. The bicycle has become a business vehicle, and a limited number of people continue to use it for exercise and pleasure, but it has seen its palmiest days.

The president will be back at the White House on Friday. He has visited twenty-three states, and it is safe to say has added largely to his list of friends and admirers. While his tour has been in no sense political, it has been demonstrated to the eastern states that opposition to his re-nomination is useless. He will command the united support of the west and will be easily renominated and elected.

It is gratifying to know that the first reports from the flooded districts of Topeka were exaggerated. While the loss of property has been very heavy, the loss of life will not exceed a score. Conditions are more serious in Kansas City, Kansas. There is plenty of opportunity in both places to exercise practical sympathy as many people are homeless. The American people are not slow in responding and the governor of the state should not hesitate to call on them.

A family by the name of Chaska, who have been on the county for a year, recently found a pearl in the river at Prairie du Chien, that sold for $925. It is estimated that $8,000 worth of these gems have been found in the same vicinity during the past week. Wisconsin may be a little shy on diamonds, but the pearl industry is open to all comers, and it seems to be in a prosperous condition.

A baby boy has been welcomed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McCue of Chicago. Mrs. McCue was formerly Miss Essie Nolan of this city.

WOODMEN'S DAY PROMISES WELL

EVERYTHING POINTS TO A MOST SUCCESSFUL PICNIC.

THE PLANS ARE ALL MADE

All is Now in Readiness for a Gala
Day Tomorrow—Big Crowd
Is Expected.

Several tons of apprehension were lifted from the minds of Woodmen throughout southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois when this morning dawned bright and clear and the Milwaukee papers announced the forecast: "Fair today and tomorrow."

Bad weather was the one hoodoo to fear. In every other respect the plans had worked out according to the fondest hopes of the promoters, and there was every reason to count on a record breaking crowd if rain did not put a damper on the festivities of the day. As it is, the weather sharps say there is practically no doubt that the elements will smile on the morrow and the 1933 picnic will be a howling success.

Last Plans Completed
Another meeting of the executive committee was held last evening, in the office of Carter and Morse. The plans for the day as previously mapped out are unchanged.

Warning has been given by the police that the usual number of questionable characters will be attracted to the city tomorrow, and that it will not be the wisest course to leave the house with unlocked doors or to give free access to smooth appearing and dexterous fingered canvassers or book agents. Pickpockets will probably ply their craft on the streets as they have for years past on the occasion of the annual Woodman day.

All Woodmen are asked to meet at their halls promptly at nine-thirty o'clock in order to be in readiness for the parade which will be formed at 10:30.

For the races at the fair grounds in the afternoon a number of good horses have been secured. Rockford, Beloit and Freeport have all made entries. A purse of three hundred dollars has been hung up in the free-for-all and among the starters are Aunt Laura, 2:15½; Levarth, 2:15½; Hotty Green and Lady B. The 2:25 trot and pace both have some speedy horses entered. The leaders in the racing association have been energetic in their efforts to get some good horses together.

Fast Ball Teams
Baseball fans are growing eager to see the game between Bloomington and Rockford at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon. The two nines, which stand first and second in the Three-I league, played at Rockford yesterday, the result being a victory for the visitors by a score of 1 to 0, neither teams scoring until the seventh inning.

Manager Connors of Bloomington and Manager Nicol of Rockford have announced their line-ups as follows:

Bloomington	Rockford
Donavan.....c	Stark
Mullaney.....1 b	Pollock
Truby.....2 b	Hosmer
King.....ss	Hess
Herbert.....3b	Pattison
Martin.....lf	Graham
Godwin.....cf	Gleason
Cassady.....rf	Killian
McGreevey.....p	Owens
Barker.....p	Beedles

City Will be Ready
All day the street cleaning department has been busily engaged in removing all refuse from the streets, preparing to make as good a showing as possible for the city.

Nearly all the merchants have purchased bunting and flags which bear the Woodmen designs with which they will decorate their places of business. That the city will be in gala attire there is but little doubt. It is estimated that at least 25,000 visitors will be in the city, if the promise of good weather is fulfilled.

Fire Police to March
At ten o'clock tomorrow morning the Fire Police will meet at the East Side fire station and in full uniform will march to the corner of High and Marion streets where they will head the procession. They have in the past been requested to appear in connection with celebrations of fraternal and other organizations but have uniformly declined to do so, but upon the request of the mayor that they take part in this parade, it was decided to do so, although the organization is under no obligation to follow the instructions of any city official save the chief of the fire department. His authority only extends from the ringing of a fire signal to "fire out."

Notice

NEW CONCERN HAS SECURED OPTIONS

ART STUDY COMPANY, OF CHICAGO, LIKES JANESVILLE.

STATE THEIR PROPOSITION

Want $17,500 Worth of Stock Subscribed, $11,000 of Which Is Already Taken.

The Manufacturers' association held a meeting at the Myers house last evening, for the purpose of considering a proposition from the Art Study company of Chicago. The company was represented by Mr. Pease, the president, and Mr. Matey and Mr. Post, two of the directors. The business carried on is the manufacture of pictures from plates owned by the company. These pictures are sold, either with or without frames, and are handled extensively by department stores, and that class of houses.

The company desires to leave Chicago on account of strikes and labor disturbances, and they also want to increase their capital and take on the manufacture of picture moulding, which they use in large quantities.

Present Capital
Their present capital stock is $25,000 which they wish to double. They are confident by doing this that they can soon work up a trade of $100,000, showing a handsome profit.

Ready to Invest
A Janesville man who has looked into the business thoroughly, proposes to invest $10,000 and take an active interest, providing the business can be located in Janesville.

A committee consisting of A. H. Bingham, C. C. McLean, T. O. Howe and H. F. Bliss was appointed to see what could be done in the matter. The Chicago gentlemen are much pleased with the city, and looked at a number of locations for a factory.

As soon as a definite proposition is ready to submit a meeting of the Business Men's association may be called to consider it.

The Prospects
It is stated that $1,000,000 worth of pictures were sold in Chicago last year. The Art Study business is capable of large development and if secured will prove a valuable acquisition to our manufacturing industries.

Met This Morning
The Janesville committee met the Chicago gentlemen representing the Art Study company this morning and an option was secured on a building, which will be leased for five years with a privilege of ten, should the business locate in Janesville.

Want Subscription
The proposition submitted is for Janesville people to subscribe for $17,500 of the stock and contribute $1500 to move and establish the plant. $11,000 of this stock is already taken, and the committee will make an effort to place the balance. The industry will be a great addition to the city's industries and it should be secured.

MANY PEOPLE GO TO ROCKFORD

A Number of Janesville Residents
Went to Hear Roosevelt in the Illinois City.

On all of the early trains for Rockford there were parties of Janesville people bound to see President Theodore Roosevelt. Thirty tickets were sold for the first train to Rockford on the Interurban and the number was swelled by passengers on both of the steam roads. Pres. Roosevelt arrived at Rockford at 9:15 this morning over the Illinois Central from Dubuque and Freeport. On today's itinerary the chief executive of the nation is also to make short stops at Rockelle, Aurora, Joliet, Pontiac, Lexington, and at four o'clock he will arrive at Bloomington where he will spend the night.

The Michigan Central has just published a quaint souvenir of the Boston N. E. A. convention containing interesting accounts of Boston, from Moray's Dictionary, 1694; Morse's Gazetteer, etc., and illustrated with facsimile cuts from the New England Primer. Goodrich's history of the United States, Snow's Boston, etc. They send it for a red stamp while the edition lasts. It will be highly prized by teachers, whether they attend the Boston convention or not. O. W. Ruggles, G. P. & T. A. Chicago.

Captain J. D. Brown, who has recently taken command of the local Salvation Army barracks, is endeavoring to raise a small debt which he found against the corps on his arrival, by serving lunches Woodmen day, Thursday, at the hall on South Main street. Substantial lunches at 15c.

One O'clock Paper Tomorrow
On account of the Woodmen Picnic day tomorrow the Gazette will be issued at one o'clock. Watch for the noon edition.

For Contempt of Court: Contempt of court was the charge against Charles E. Munger who appeared in the circuit court yesterday. His case was adjourned until tomorrow. It was charged that he had not paid the alimony ordered by the court when his wife was granted a decree of divorce.

CUNNINGHAM IS TO BE CHAIRMAN

PRESIDENT STARR WILL DELIVER
ADDRESS TO WOODMEN.

FIRE DEP'T WILL TURN OUT

Alarm To Be Turned in at the West
Side Station Tomorrow
Afternoon.

As president of the Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois Picnic association F. P. Starr was to have been the presiding officer at the exercises which will be held in the courthouse park tomorrow afternoon. His recent illness has so enfeebled him that it will be impossible for him to attempt to carry out the duties of that office, and after the opening remarks he will resign the chairmanship to J. J. Cunningham.

Rev. W. A. Goebel will act as chaplain. Music will be furnished by the prize-winning band. The bands will be judged as they pass the judges' stand, in the parade.

Exhibition Run
One of the features of the day will be the exhibition fire run at 1:30 in the afternoon. Chief Klein will send in an alarm from the "kicker" which will ring up one of the far boxes, perhaps 515, the Five Points box. Every piece of service apparatus will be taken out except the aerial truck. In the morning even that will be taken out for the parade.

The fire police will take part in the exhibition run, six men being detailed to ride in the patrol wagon. The hopes of the members of the company had been firmly fixed on having the new patrol wagon before now, but labor difficulties in the east have made it impossible to complete the wagon at the time originally promised.

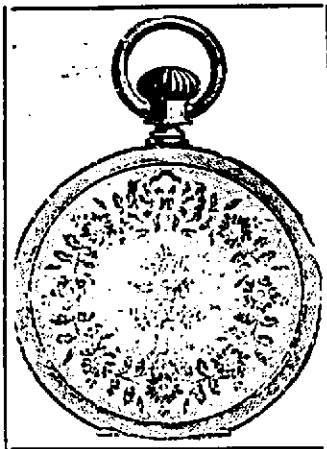

Mrs. Samuel Conant
The funeral of the late Mrs. Samuel Conant was held on Sunday afternoon from the family residence, 157 North High street, at four o'clock. Rev. Tippet, pastor of the Court Street Methodist church was the officiating clergyman. The pallbearers were W. F. Carle, L. B. Carle, S. C. Burnham, E. W. Lowell, Charles Dutton and Dr. E. E. Loomis. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery.
